

War Widows' Stories

History. Memories. Heritage.

War's Forgotten Women

— An In-Conversation Event about War Widows Past & Present —

Friday, 8 June 2018. 2.00 - 4.00PM.

Firing Line Museum of the Welsh of Soldier. Cardiff Castle.

Every year, we commemorate the lives and sacrifices of those who have lost their lives as a result of war. Yet, those who are left behind remain war's forgotten women to this day, and little is known about their lives and stories. Join us in the stunning surroundings of Cardiff Castle and amidst the fascinating collections of the Firing Line Museum and learn about the experiences and sacrifices of war widows past and present.

Dr Lloyd Bowen

Reader in Early Modern History (Cardiff University)
Civil War Petitions: Conflict, Welfare, & Memory During &
After the English Civil Wars, 1642-1710

Mrs Mary Moreland

Chair of the War Widows' Association of Great Britain

Dr Nadine Muller

Senior Lecturer in English Literature & English Literature
(Liverpool John Moores University)
Project Leader, War Widows' Stories

*Admission is free and refreshments will be provided, but you must book your place in advance.
Simply email us at info@warwidowsstories.org.uk or register here.*